Rehab Ikhlaq

Clinical Psychologist

rehabikhlaq@gmail.com • +92 347 2880748 • linkedin.com/in/rehab-ikhlaq • rehabikhlaq.netlify.app

Profile

Clinical psychologist with a BS in Psychology from the National University of Modern Languages (2026). Completed a clinical internship at Quaid-e-Azam International Hospital, Islamabad, observing and assisting with psychological assessments and clinical interviews as part of a multidisciplinary team. Undergraduate thesis used a quantitative research design with statistical analysis. Seeking an entry-level clinical or research position, internship or supervised training placement.

Clinical Experience

Psychology Intern

July – October 2026

Quaid-e-Azam International Hospital, Islamabad

- Worked in direct contact with patients in a clinical healthcare setting.
- Observed and assisted with psychological assessments and clinical interviews.
- Collaborated with a multidisciplinary clinical team on day-to-day patient care.
- Maintained professional conduct in interactions with patients and healthcare staff.

Internship completed with certificate

Education

BS Psychology

2026

National University of Modern Languages (NUML)

Research

Undergraduate thesis, BS Psychology, NUML

Effect of Cyberslacking on Attention Control and Rational Thinking Among Employees in Workplace Settings

Quantitative study of the relationship between cyberslacking (non-work internet use during working hours) and employees' attention control and rational decision-making. Conducted data collection, statistical analysis and reporting of findings.

Skills

CLINICAL

- Psychological assessment
- Clinical interviewing
- Active listening

RESEARCH

- Quantitative research
- Statistical analysis
- Academic writing

PROFESSIONAL

- Professional communication
- Interpersonal skills
- Teamwork and collaboration
- Time management

Languages

English – Fluent

Urdu – Native

Location

Islamabad, Pakistan